Promiscuous dog poisoning is a low lived business.

Wm. N. Johnson has returned from the far west.

Elam's new side-walk is as useful as it is ornamental.

Dansby & Sage are going to have a pleasure boat on Pugsley's Lake.

Watson, the furniture man at Lawton, has a new "ad." this week. Read it.

Gene Bradt has come back to town. He will probably remain here some little time.

Now comes A. Bilbo and joins the innumerable throng with a Young Wilkes colt.

The Alumni of the Paw Paw High School intend to picnic at Lake Park on Friday, June 23d.

On Monday evening last the boys had the steamer out emptying the cisterns, so that the new tile could be laid.

Rev. G. L. Cole will preach next Sabbath morning on "The Transfiguration," and in the evening on "Manliness."

Hank writes that it don't get dark in Dakota until after nine o'clock. We suppose he has to go to bed by day light.

The Grand Army re-union is in progress at 4 mile lake. Railroad fare the round trip from Paw Paw to lake and return is 25 cents.

The temperance address of A. H. Herron at the M. E. Church last Sabbath, is spoken of as being very fine. It is able and eloquent.

There are four members of the graduating class this year: Misses Ada Simpson, Belle Richards, Hattie Van Kirk and Nellie Pugsley.

Jas. Prater has purchased the old Northwestern building of S. T. Conway for $500, and will fit it up for a residence and photographic gallery.

Married, on the 11th inst., at the M. E. Parsonage, by the Rev. G. L. Cole, Mr. Wm. Christie of Dowagiac, to Miss Mary Elizabeth Blue of Decatur.

All bouquets intended for the High School graduates, should be plainly marked with name of person for whom intended. The ushers will collect and distribute same.

On Monday evening last, Brodhead Post mustered in eleven members. The Post now numbers eighty-three.

The Saugatuck Commercial speaks in complimentary terms of Prof. F. D. Jacob's musical convention at that place.

We expect to ride over the railroad from Paw Paw to Bangor, without change of cars, on the first day of September next.

Elder Cole lost a valuable horse on Monday last. It had been turned out to pasture and another horse kicked it, breaking its leg.

Mrs. Randolph's essay, a very fine one, is crowded out this week on account of lack of space. We shall insert it in our next.

Those onions that Lute Rogers brought to the Northerner were fine. They perfumed our breath nicely for Sunday morning services.

Ed. Welch has bought the Billsborow farm. This gives Mr. Welch a half mile square of choice land. He calls his place the Paw Paw Valley Merino Sheep farm.

In the case of the People vs. Andrew Harwick, who was charged with violation of the liquor law, before Esq. Warner on Monday last, the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Married, at Lansing, on the morning of June 8th, 1882, Mr. Geo. E. Breck of this place and Miss Belle M. Dart of Lansing. We wish the parties much joy. "May they live long and prosper."

The Wilders, Gleasons, Thayers, Rhodes, and others had a picnic at Pugsley's lake one day last week when it rained so hard. They report a good time, playing crack the whip, pom-pom-pull-away etc.

The Paw Paw Male Voice Glee Club, C. E. Hutchins Esq., leader, Miss Mamie Rowland, organist, will meet for practice Sunday p. m. next at half past three. All male singers are invited to participate.

They have a fine quartette choir at the First Baptist church. Miss Isidore Harrison, Soprano, Miss Mattie Blackman, Alto, Del. McCollum, Tenor, and Ame. Palmer, Bass. Miss Mamie L. Rowland, Organist.

Supt. Ihling is entitled to much credit for the energy he has displayed in pushing the narrow gauge road. Besides being a good fellow, John's go-ahead-iveness is enough to more than supply some whole families.

On Thursday of last week Prof. Burkett of the Bangor Advance made us a pleasant visit, and on Saturday last G. B. Southworth of the Gobleville Advertiser did likewise. Call again brethren, the latch string is always out.

While the engine was being returned to the engine-house on Monday evening, little Johnny Malloy, who was running with the cart containing the hose, accidentally fell down, the cart running over his foot injuring it quite severely.

The graduation exercises will be held at the Opera House, on Wednesday evening, June 22d. The graduates will receive all their friends who will honor them by their presence, on the succeeding evening at the residence of Judge Richards.

Some of the newspapers say that according to the official report of the Supervisor of Porter, every child born in that town during the past year was illegitimate. This can't possibly be the case. How is it George, were you trying to put up a job on John C.?

The boys who went to Dowagiac to Forepangh's show, got left at Lawton by the morning train. John bought them their breakfast at Lawton to stop their swearing. The Northerner typo with the pink mustache was with the crowd, but he did not swear any.

Ehrich's Fashion Quarterly is a success. Its cost is but fifty cents a year, and if its publishers propose to give for that price four books of equal merit with the one before us, they will deserve the success we wish them. The magazine is issued by Ehrich Bros., Eighth Ave., N. Y.

The Redemptorist Fathers of Detroit, will conduct a renewal of the mission at St. Mary's church. Exercises begin next Sunday at 10 o'clock, will last during the week and consist of mass and instructions at 9 a. m., and instructions and benediction with the Blessed Sacrament at 7 p. m.

Some years ago our village fathers connected some of our reservoirs with gas pipe which, under pressure, runs a stream as large as one's little finger. They are now taking it up and laying tile which will give an abundant supply of water, to supply our engine in case of fire.

On Friday of next week the Van Buren County Light Guard Band will have a picnic at Lake Park. They will play on the streets of this village in the forenoon, picnic at the lake in the afternoon, and have a dance in the evening. They extend a general invitation to every one to attend both the picnic and dance.

Roads are being improved and graveled, and new side-walks continue to be built. Good.

Saugatuck is reaching out after the Narrow Gauge extension. If South Haven is apathetic in this matter, she may lose the road ala Hartford.

Dr. Hendricks who is treating Mrs. Julia Freeman, who has long been suffering from paralysis and nervous prostration, reports that Mrs. F. is rapidly improving.

Over a column of this paper was set by Marion Rowland, a 13 year old son of O. W.'s who never set a type till within the last month. He worked Saturday, and evenings after school.

It was children's day at the M. E. Church last Sabbath. A profusion of plants, flowers and birds pleased the eye, while recitations, singing, addresses, etc., greeted the ear and engaged the mind.

On Wednesday last Pros. Att'y Rowland made complaint against Robt. Shields, of Gobles, for keeping open bar on Sunday. The case was disposed of by a plea of guilty and a fine of $25 and costs.

Three young men have been arrested for the recent Glendale burglary mentioned in our columns a short time since. Their names are Dean Hill, Fred Stoughton and Charley Stoughton. They own up the corn.

The summer meeting of the State Horticultural Society will open at Pentwater, Tuesday morning, June 20th inst. The transportation of fruit will be a prominent topic of discussion. Fruit growers should attend this meeting. The C. & W. M. R. R. will sell excursion tickets at all stations on the 19th, good to return the 23d.

The Hartford Day Spring, referring to the success of Bangor in securing the Narrow Gauge, cries "sour grapes." Had some of Hartford's wealthy men come forward and guaranteed the amount asked from that village it would have been the making of the town, just the same, as well as money in the pockets of the guarantors.

Two houses were burned at South Haven on Sunday last, one occupied by Mr. Myhan and the other by Mr. Robinson. The Myhan family were out in the yard observing the Robinson fire, which was some distance away, and on turning to their own house found it in flames. The Robinson house was the property of Dr. Woodman.

On Tuesday morning last the City of Dowagiac was the scene of a disastrous fire. Among the buildings burned were the Republican office, H. J. Hendry's feed and sale stables, Mrs. Reshore's grocery, the City Hotel, engine house, city jail, Gebhardt's saloon, Mrs. Compton's store and dwelling, and several other buildings. We extend our sympathy to Bro. Kellogg of the Republican.

We were shown a limb cut from a peach tree in Wells and Charley Mosier's orchard in Porter, two and one-half feet in length, which had over sixty peaches on it. Mr. Mosier says the prospect is excellent for an abundant crop of all varieties of peaches, and his vineyard gives abundant promise of an excellent yield. Mr. C. C. Engle reports the same condition of affairs existing in his orchard and graperies.

The Advance criticises us because we only had a two line local on the location of the "Narrow Gauge." But, Bro. Burkett, the two lines told the whole story. Please remember that it is not this town, that is to be connected with the county seat. If we lived in Bangor perhaps we should feel as elated as Bro. Burkett does. Did we not know him to be a strictly temperance man we should think—, but not perish the thought, it cannot be.

We have received through the courtesy of Dr. Andrews, we presume, the St. Paul Daily Globe, containing full proceedings of the American Medical Association, which are of an exceedingly interesting character. The roster shows 863 delegates present. Among the names from our own state we observe the following distinguished members of the profession: Dr. J. Andrews, of Paw Paw, Dr. G. L. Rose, of Decatur, Prof. R. C. Kedzie, of Lansing, and Dr. F. Pratt, of Kalamazoo, besides many others not so well known to our readers.

From the annual report of the Commissioner of Insurance for 1881, just received, we clip the following statistics relative to the two Farmers Mutual Insurance Companies which do business in this county: Farmers Mutual of Van Buren Co., total income, $3,186.32; losses paid $1,278.20; salaries and fees $460.85; other expenses $965.99; total expenditures $2,885.04. Farmers Mutual of Cass County: Total income $2,379.93; losses paid $941.00; salaries and fees $1,298.82; other expenses $104.78; total expenditures $2,344.60. From this showing it appears that the Cass company pays about three times as much in salary and fees as does the Van Buren Company.
